alleging that a fellow principal and two of the school's teachers were arrested on the basis of false allegations and without any evidence. "It is highly unfortunate that the principal and two teachers of a school in east Delhi were arrested on the basis of false allegations. They spent 35 days in jail," said a statement from Affordable Private Schools' Association. TNN

HC judges to donate for Kerala

Delhi high court Chief Justice Rajendra Menon and other justices of the high court have decided to contribute for the rehabilitation of the people of Kerala, who were hit by the devastating floods. Besides the judges, the registry of Delhi HC would also contribute to the CM's Distress Relief fund. TNN

Water expo looks for solutions

Delhi hosted the first day of the 'EverythingAboutWater' Expo on Thursday. Experts and agencies like CGWB, TERI, DJB, NCMG and other organisations gathered under one roof to find solutions to solve water scarcity and other water-related problems across the country. The expo is being held at Pragati Maidan and over 200 exhibitors from abroad have been invited to showcase different technologies which can be used to improve India's groundwater recharge potential. TNN

NGT slaps fine for sewage plant

National Green Tribunal has slapped an interim fine of Rs 2.5 lakh on the project proponent of Bandhwari sewage treatment plant in Gurgaon for damaging the environment. A bench headed by NGT chairperson Justice Adarsh Kumar Goel noted that there was no substantial compliance by the project proponent in managing the waste and said that mere statement that compliance will be done in the future was not enough. PTI
